Santa Rosa Sewage Disposal Plan May Be Tried Here

Grape Harvest Of 1924 Begins In Famous Sonoma Valley

EXPERTS THINK SEWER BOND IS NOT NECESSARY

City Chemist and Plumbing Inspector of Santa Rosa Advises Improvement of Sonoma's Present Plant.

As a result of the neighborly interest shown by City Chemist E. J. Halgren and City Building and Plumbing Inspector W. B. Simpson of Santa Rosa, the City of Sonoma had the benefit last Sunday of expert opinion and advice relative to the sewer farm problem, which may save Sonoma taxpayers a contemplated $30,000.00 bond issue.

Messrs. Halgren and Simpson have been making intensive study of sewage disposal plants as a result of threatened litigation and drastic action of Santa Rosa property owners and the State Board of Health, which some time ago condemned Santa Rosa's sewer farm.

The taxpayers went so far there as to authorize a big bond issue for the improvement thought necessary. As tide water extension was felt to be eventually the only solution and the bond issue expenditure at best only temporary relief, the present plan at Santa Rosa was offered as a possible solution to the entire problem and the saving of the large sum of money voted for a new plant. The substitute plan is now in effect and is declared to be giving apparent satisfaction.

While the Santa Rosa men conceded that their city's plan is yet in the experimental stage, they believe it is working to the satisfaction of all former complainants and urge Sonoma to try out the system.

The addition of two tanks, aprons, a chlorination unit, the checking of the ground and elimination of all weeds covering the farm, the possible addition of gravel filters, etc., are in brief the features of the suggested sewer disposal plant which could be constructed with an outlay of not more than $2000 over a period of two years. The sum would be sufficient to make additions from time to time if such appeared necessary, but does not include, however, the upkeep or supervision of the farm which may entail the expenditure of $40 or $50 per month.

Mayor Bulotti, City Engineer R. C. Specht and members of the Sonoma Board of Trustees accompanied Messrs. Halgren and Simpson on the inspection trip to the Sonoma farm Sunday and the local officials shortly will visit Santa Rosa to fully acquaint themselves with the plan and its working there although, of course, that city has a larger sewer farm and

The Bear Flag Is Flown Over White House

It is a far cry from the Sonoma of 1846 to Washington, D. C., of 1924, yet the Bear Flag, crude emblem of revolution born of the intrepid idea of pioneers, forerunner of our statehood, flew from the White House flag staff September 9th, symbolic of California's admission to the Union. The Bear Flag, now the state flag, was originally made right here in the barracks adjacent to Sonoma's Plaza. The cloth was contributed by pioneers, among them the mother of Mrs. R. J. Snyder, and the star and bear were painted with vegetable stains by William Todd. The bear was chosen because he was a California animal "that stood his ground." The star was selected because of enduring brightness and emblem of statehood. The Mexicans laughed at the bear and called it "porcino," so closely did the picture on the flag resemble a pig. Amid ribald rejoicing the Bear Flag was raised in 1846 on the Sonoma Plaza. Five days later California was formally taken from Mexico by the Americans and in 1850 it was admitted as a state. The Bear Flag has a lot of history in its folds which when flung to the breeze will tell the world a picturesque story of Sonoma, cradle of California history. The Easterner who journeys West has not seen the real California until the home of the Bear Flag is visited.

GRADUATE OF HOLLAND COLLEGE DIES HERE

Frans Knolle, Graduate of Royal Netherlands Horticultural College, Passed Away at Vineburg Home.

After a protracted illness, Frans Knolle, well known Vineburg resident, and father of F. J. B. Knolle, has passed to his reward. Mr. Knolle was a graduate of the Royal Netherland Horticultural College and for a time was employed in the Netherland Botanical Gardens and later followed the business of landscape gardening, florist and nursery exhibitor in the old country. His plants took many first prizes and he was well known through Europe as a sucessful, scientific grower.

In 1904 Mr. Knolle followed his son, Frank Knolle, to America, settling on a ranch in Humboldt county and later locating here in Sonoma Valley. His wife and daughter accompanied him from the old country, and are left with the son, Frank, to mourn deceased.

Mr. Knolle was born in Holland in 1848, and during his life time of 76 years achieved success and honor at the same time devotinig much time to home and family, which he gave every advantage.

The funeral took place from the family home Tuesday, Rev. Isaac Cookman officiating.

Mrs. L. Armstrong and two children of Cleveland, Ohio, a sister of Mrs. Jep Valente, are here for several weeks visit with their Sonoma relatives at their home on Broadway.

Spirited Meeting Attended By Visitors; Another Meeting Monday Night

The Valley of the Moon Chamber of Commerce, which sent out a call for a joint meeting of its members and Sonoma Business Men's Association members for the discussion of highway betterment, had a small but enthusiastic response of membership Monday night, but the meeting was augmented and given great impetus by the unexpected visit of a delegation of Petaluma Chamber of Commerce members, headed by Secretary Miller of that organization. The Petaluma people came to protest the poor road between Sonoma and that city and to offer their co-operation and aid to get better access to Sonoma Valley over the hills by means of modern highway instead of over the rough, almost impassable, county thoroughfare which now connects the two cities.

The meeting was called to order by W. L. Murphy, vice president of the Valley of the Moon Chamber of Commerce, the president, J. "Toots" Serres, being unable to be present. Albert Elliot, secretary of the organization, took down the official proceedings.

Mr. Murphy stated the object of the meeting, highway betterment, and stated that Petaluma had heard the call and had sent a delegation to offer aid on better highway between this valley and the Egg City.

Secretary Miller of the Petaluma Chamber of Commerce addressed the meeting, stating that the Petaluma road had been designated a Class B highway in the county bond issue a few years ago, but that it had never come up to specification and was now in a deplorable state. He declared it was the sentiment of Petaluma to join with Sonoma to protest its condition and work for its reconstruction and upkeep. Other Petaluma speakers voiced the sentiment of that city, including L. B. Hammell, who told of the popularity of the Sonoma Valley springs with Petaluma people but who were kept out by the bad roads in this district.

Sonoma Valley speakers followed, all of whom endorsed the move to better the Petaluma and Sonoma road and pledged loyal support. John Main of El Verano, S. Rosenthal, R. R. Emparan, A. Elliot and others were among the speakers of the evening. Mr. Rosenthal suggested augmenting the local Chamber of Commerce as the first move in the right direction, but Petaluma declared we should take up the issue of the road improvement without further preliminaries, suggesting that next Monday night a mas meeting be held to further discuss the program. It was moved and seconded to meet again on Monday night, September 15th, at the Sonoma City Hall. A big delegation of Petaluma people will attend. Every man and woman in Sonoma Valley interested in good roads should be there to demonstrate that Petaluma's co-operation is appreciated.

A committee consisting of J. B. Parrent, John Main, R. R. Emparan, S. Rosenthal and A. Elliot was named to confer with Petaluma and arrange for a 100 per cent attendance at this meeting.

A resolution carried endorsing the plan of the San Francisco Down Town Association to present a joint program of state highway needs to the Committee of Nine, thanking San Francisco for its interest and pledging Sonoma Valley's co-operation.

County Committee Endorses Coolidge

The national Republican ticket of Coolidge and Dawes for president and vice president respectively was endorsed and an endorsement of the entire state administration, particularly the administration of Friend W. Richardson, governor of California, was given at the meeting Wednesday morning of the County Republican Central Committee in the court house at Santa Rosa.

The meeting was called by Acting Chairman Walter F. Price and convened with Price in the chair and J. B. Piatt as secretary.

At the opening of the meeting Carl Bernard was elected permanent chairman, and Walter F. Price was made permanent secretary.

The former committee rules of procedure and the former rules for recommendations and appointments were adopted early in the meeting, which was held in Judge Campbell's court room.

Following the assessment of each delegate $5.00 for a committee fund, the budget committee, to consist of Chairman Barnard, Secretary Price, TreasurerGeorge P. Lovejoy, Dr. E. Jackson and R. A. Daniels, was appointed.

The committeemen of each supervisorial district will constitute a finance committee to raise the campaign funds from their respective districts. Three hundred dollars is Sonoma's quota.

A publicity committee of C. W. Carpenter, Petaluma; P. T. Allison, Sebastopol; J. Elmer Mobley and Walter F. Price, Santa Rosa; Charles Sheriffs, Healdsburg; and W. L. Murphy, Sonoma, was appointed to handle all campaign publicity for the county. The power was given Chairman Bernard to appoint any others on the committee as he may see fit.

Following the adoption of the resolutions of endorsement of the administration and the national ticket, the secretary was ordered to draft the formal resolutions.

Present at the meeting were P. T. Allison, W. F. Fore, C. W. Carpenter, O. E. Jackson, George P. Lovejoy, C. E. Hunt, Carl Bernard, Glenn E. Murdock, J. B. Piatt, Walter F. Price, Roy A. Daniels, George Breitenbach, S. A. Cunningham, John J. Mohr and J. H. Weise.

Henry Locarnini of Vallejo has been here on the sick list, under the care of Dr. A. M. Thomson, at the Locarnini home in El Verano.

Interesting Letter For Less Than 4c

Most people do not care to write long letters and if they do write at length it costs them time, stationery and postage. The cheapest letter for those who want a newsy account of "doings" in the home town about friends and neighbors and progress is the home newspaper. The Index-Tribune is a letter eagerly awaited, and it costs subscribers less than four cents a week, with all the postage paid, whether you live in Sonoma Valley or on the outside. Just like a letter from home, the paper is eagerly awaited particularly in the big cities where a lot of people live, although their hearts are in the Valley of the Moon. Just yesterday an out-of-town subscriber told how the family in San Francisco awaits the arrival of the postman every Saturday. "Anything?" they all ask in chorus. "Oh, nothing but a dinky paper," replies the postman. "Dinky paper? That's what we all want," answers the ex-Sonoma residents as they frantically tear open the wrapper of the Index-Tribune, each hoping to get the chance to read it first. The Sonoma letter is read line for line, ad for ad, column for column, page to page, and when the subscriber throws it down or remails it to a friend, he is satisfied that such a letter for less than four cents a week, postage all paid, is the bargain of bargains in these days of high prices.

OYSTER BUST HERE SUNDAY

Petaluma Lodge of Elks Will Hold Annual Affair at Bates Grove South of Sonoma.

The annual oyster bust of Petaluma Lodge of Elks will occur at Bates' Grove tomorrow.This is one of the biggest events in Elkdom in this section of the state and the Petalumans are hosts at all times, but more especially at their oyster bust.

This will be the tenth annual gathering at the oyster bust, which originated at Point Reyes years ago. An abundance of succulent oysters will be on hand to tempt the appetites of the Elks and their guests on this occasion and with them many other viands will be served. Any Elk may invite friends to accompany him to the oyster bust.

Oysters as large as pancakes, fresh from Tomales Bay, laid before your receptive gaze on the half shell, surrounded by the cooling influence of ice chunks. Barbecued meats, garnered from the elusive bull, while yet young in years, so tender that it can be gummed with impunity.

And Spanish beans, both round and square, guaranteed to fit any knife, baked in bean pots a la King Alfonso.

A jazz orchestra will add themselves up and waft their answer upon the desert air, and a lot of clever performers will vie with each other for your applause.

EL VERANO NEWS

By ARCHIBALD McKIVER

Nels Peterson, a ranch hand recently sent up from San Francisco to work on the Lombard ranch, ran amuck in our town one night last week after several days of hard work on the farm, staying home at nights and hitting the roost with the chickens. Nels came to the conclusion that the life was a lonesome one, so, accompanied by Bob Smith, an ex-service man, set out to see the surrounding country by moonlight. During their sight seeing trip the boys encountered and to all appearances absorbed some hard jackass, and upon their return home in the wee hours of a September morn, aroused from his slumbers Foreman Barney O'Neil, former Crockett peace officer, who was informed by the celebrants that the Greeks were after them. Calming the men down, O'Neil succeeded in getting them to hit the hay. As Peterson lay on the floor, the booze began to work, whereupon he arose and went to Smith's room and pulling the latter from his bed used him as a football, bounced him up and down on the hard floor, blacking his eye, dislocating his nose, and administering such a drubbing that Smith has not been able to sit down since. Wild calls for Barney in the feeble- choked voice of Smith brought the foreman to the scene of strife and grabbing Peterson by his beautiful goatee, Barney succeeded in pulling him off the war hero. Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan and John Mohr were then summoned and taking Peterson into custody, lodged him in the Sonoma City jail. He appeared the following morning before Judge Small and was given two hours to leave town. O'Neil, who had a lively time, says he is used to handling those kind of birds, and the harder and tougher they act the better he likes them. The ex-soldier told the writer he thought he was again on the battle fields of France with a whole army marching over him.

Roadmaster Hart of the S. P. Company was in town last Saturday from South Vallejo inspecting the double tracks to Boyes Springs from El Verano.

Miss Emily Batto, popular Vineburg girl, accompanied by Mrs. Groskopf, were S. P. passengers Saturday morning enroute to the Summit where a pleasant week end was enjoyed.

The Foldesy and Farkas families of Oakland and Dr. and Mrs. Rowell have been enjoying a several days' visit at the former's summer cottage on Riverside Drive.

The Misses Datti, two charming oung ladies from San Francisco, after visiting here with their sister for several days, have returned home.

John Walton, well known disciple of Isaak Walton, who now resides at Fetters Springs, got the limit of bass at Napa Bridge Sunday, presenting a nice one to George Fetters, who, with a number of friends, enjoyed a fish dinner Tuesday. Larson is champion fisherman of Sonoma Valley and while residing in El Verano kept our local rodmen guessing how he did it. It is rumored that John will be a candidate for mayor of the Boyes Springs section, opposing the incumbent, the Honorable Mayor Minges, who has held down the political plum for a number of years.

Charles Danieli, San Francisco plumber, was visiting home folks on Sunday.

Julius Unger, fresh from a whale catching expedition in the frozen waters of Alaska, was in town Monday looking fresh and hearty after his trip up North. He tells the writer that he speared one of the largest whales ever taken from salt water, and is now resting on his honors as champion whale catcher of the fishing fleet. Unger has been a seaman for 50 years, and looks younger than ever.

The sad news was received here on Saturday of the death of Mrs. May Hollingsworth, in San Francisco, a former resident at Verano, and the mother of Buck Holly, well known boxer. Deceased was 66 years of age and leaves a husband and seven children. Mrs. Hollingsworth had many friends in Sonoma Valley who will learn of her death with sorrow. The funeral was held Monday in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Millitello and daughter, and M. Millitello and daughter, Miss Annie, of Buffalo, N. Y., were guests at the Sutter home over Admission Day, returning to Oakland Wednesday.

Miss Dorothy Klopstock of San Francisco ise visiting with Mrs. Charles Baines and Miss Hazel Baines.

A pump house at Sonoma Grove which caught fire Monday, caused some excitement. Gus Marcy, Sonoma plumber, who was working there, turned in the alarm, and in a short time the Sonoma and Boyes Springs departments were on the scene and quickly extinguished the flames, which had burned the pump house and ignited the dry grass.

A number of dyed-in-the-wool local Elks and their friends will be at the oyster bust at Bates' Grove south of Sonoma, Sunday afternoon. Their oyster bust, barbecue and entertainment last year is still fresh in the memory of those who attended and this year's pow wow will excel all others. Elks from all parts of California have signified their intention to make the trip to the Valley of the Moon and enjoy the big doings.

C. Stafford has gone to Lake county to reside. His health being had, he seeks a new clime. Stafford formerly resided in Sonoma, but has been a resident of El Verano for the past six months.

An extra gravel train made up of 30 cars, pulled into El Verano last Saturday, the gravel being unloaded along the new siding switch track to Boyes Springs, on the S. P. line.

Mrs. Fred Venton of Oakland has returned home after visiting with her folks here for several days.

A large number of vacationists spent Admission Day at El Verano. The hotels were crowded and the tourists enjoyed themselves during their stay.

Men and women who have failed to register for the primary election held in August are reminded that they have another opportunity now to get their names on the reat reigster on the first Tuesday in November. County Clerk W. W Felt, Jr., has sent Deputy County Clerk Tom Mulroy registration supplies and as this is the last chance to register, all citizens should register and have a vote for the great three cornered presidential race.

Miss Mabel Nonella of San Francisco was a week end visitor here.

G. Locarnini, local garage man and a party of huntsmen bold motored to Geyserville Saturday on a three days' jaunt in the wilds in quest of deer. The hunters returned Monday with a large buck and the writer wishes to thank Locarnini for the nice cut of venison which he received.

James Morris, pioneer farmer of Agua Caliente, was an interested spectator at the State Fair, being the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lutgens, the former being Governor Richardson's secretary.

Mrs. Albert Rossi and daughter have gone to Occidental to join Mr. Rossi, who is on the run over the N. W. P. as brakeman, and will be there during the heavy shipments during the grape season.

Charles Birdsall, well known veteran guide of San Francisco, who knows the denizens of the underworld from A to Z, and talks the Chinese language like a native son of the Celestial Kingdom, was in Sonoma Valley recently and informed the writer that he expects to leave soon for Hong Kong, China.

Harry and Arthur Baines returned Tuesday from a camping trip through a number of states, and the Province of Canada, where the boys enjoyed a several weeks' visit in the wet district. They visited relatives and had a most wonderful trip and say there is no place like the other side, which is said to be increasing in population since the United States adopted the Volstead Act. Many people have left this country to make their home in the nearest land of the free, as Canada is now known.

GOLDEN GATE FERRY SUIT IS DISMISSED

Internal strife which has threatened to disrupt the executive staff of the Golden Gate Ferry Company for many months past was halted this week when J. B. Foppiano, Healdsburg capitalaist, with two other large stockholders instructed their attorneys to file stipulations dismissing the charges of misappropriation of funds against Aven J. Hanford and Oscar H. Klatt, president and vice president of the company.

A settlement of the suit which has been on trial before Superior Judge Johnson since early August has been effected.

By the terms of the settlement, it is understood that Silestro Scatena, J. B. Foppiano and John M. Perata stockholders said to represent the minority, have instructed their attorneys John L. McNab, Bert Schlesinger and Courtney L. Moore to file stipulations dismissing both the action for petition for an accounting and a disolution of the voting trust.

Upon the other hand Aven J. Hanford, president of the ferry company, and Oscar H. Klatt, vice president and director, have agreed to purchase at a stipulated price from any dissatisfied stockholders, any stocks held in the corporation. Such purchases are being made by them as personal responsibilities rather than any corporate undertaking.'

SANTA ROSA PLANS HARVEST FESTIVAL

With the slogan "Just For Fun" as a motif, Santa Rosa is planning to celebrate by staging a Harvest Festival on Friday and Saturday, September 26th and 27th. One of the unusual features in connection with this community festival is that it is being put on without any expectation of deriving revenue. The community is going to stand all of the expense and is inviting everyone in Lake, Mendocino, Napa and Sonoma counties to be the city's guests on the two days of the celebration.

An array of novel and entertaining stunts are being worked out. In addition to providing the free entertainment, the merchants in each block at a scheduled time, will give presents and souvenirs to all the patrons. Residents of the city are inviting their friends in the rural districts and other towns, to be their house guests for the two days of the celebration. The civic and service clubs are arranging the stunts and entertaining features, which include novel automobile races, auto parades, auto shows, authentic events of all kinds, flower shows, band concerts, water fight, movies for the children Saturday morning and Mardi Gras with street dancingg. For the special interest of the ladies, a fashion show will be held in one of the theatres. For the interest of the farmers, there will be a free public auction of farm implements, tools and live stock.

In addition to all the free entertainment, more than 200 prizes will be awarded for the various events.

GLEN ELLEN NOTES

The White Elephant social given by the ladies of the Congregational church at Mayflower Hall on Friday evening of last week was well attended. The White Elephant parcels booth contained many surprises. One parcel purchased by a young man for ten cents was found to contain statuary at least two feet in height. White elephant donations were numerous. An excellent program consisting of attractive stage features, music, recitations and songs were enjoyed. Mrs. G. Niell and Mrs. H. Shieck acted as piano accompanists.

An overture played by Mrs. Neill a ballad sung by Miss Olive Gore, a monologue by Miss Amy Poppe added variety to the entertainment.

The Congregational church is to have a piano. Mrs. H. Schieck, Mrs. Alfred Clark and Walter Bonbright have been chosen as a committee for the selection of the instrument.

Mrs. Fred Peterson and daughter, Virginia, who are residing in San Francisco, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Rankin. Mrs. Peterson is here to be near her grandmother, Mrs. William Ping, who is at present in delicate health.

Miss Densmore, principal of the Grammar School, began teaching this week. Miss Densmore boards with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnson. Miss Moyle of Kenwood is the assistant teacher.

BOBBED HAIR CONTEST

The recent State Fair "flowing tresses" contest, where fair women showed the glory of long hair, will find a worthy rival in the "bobbed hair contest" to be conducted at the annual outing of the Order of Alhambra, of San Francisco, and their families and friends, at Fairfax Park, in Marin county, on Sunday, September 21st The bobbed hair competition will be open to women and girls from all parts of the state, and leading beauty specialists and hair dressers will act as judges. Mrs. Eliza Shepard of Glen Ellen has gone East for a month and will attend important conferences with the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion.

SMOOTH PERFORMANCE

A marked smoothness characterizes the performance of Dodge Brothers Motor Car.

In keeping with the policy of constant improvement, effective measures have been taken to minimize vibration. Applied to the body, engine, clutch, brakes, and other vital units, these refinements add immeasurably to the comfort of travel over boulevards and country roads.

The effect is so pronounced, in fact, that it is entirely fitting to classify smooth performance as one of the outstanding attributes of Dodge Brothers Motor Car.

CRIME COMPOUNDED, NOT PUNISHED

A wave of dissatisfaction, if not indignation, swept up and down the streets of Sonoma when the verdict of Judge Caverly in the Loeb-Leopold case became known here Wednesday. Capitalist and laboring man, American born and the foreigner alike denounced the decision.

It was not an unwhetted, bloodthirsty mob spirit that surged through people when they heard that the rich young perverts were to escape the death penalty, but a feeling that the penalty prescribed for self-confessed cold-blooded, unnatural crime had not been meted out.

Capital punishment may be all wrong, but it is in effect and recognized. If it exists, why was it not applicable in this case? We believe that youth was the deciding factor with the Judge, or the feeling that the youths were not responsible for the crime taint which found its expression in the brutal murder of a playmate.

But the world will say it was money. The power of wealth swinging what the public prosecutor could not swing.

Radicals will fatten on the issue.

Conservatives will lose faith.

Young criminality will be stimulated.

Let's expunge capital punishment at once if you can "kill for a thrill" and get away with it. All the souls which look back upon the hangman's noose will arise in scorn at this miscarriage of justice. Splendid young manhood forfeits life in war, grim outcropping of civilized nations, so what is the forfeiture of life per se? Life forfeited to the state for the betterment of the race and for the moral effect in an age notorious for young criminality, for the justification of equality before the law, should not cause a jurist, however Christian-like to quail, with public opinion to be satisfied and the structure of government made safe.

PEOPLE LEFT HOLDING SACK SHY $1000

The police bribery scandal in Santa Rosa exposed and brought into court by Sonoma County's Grand Jury, has blown up after $1000 of the people's money had been spent on the trial. Although District Attorney Hoyle had a high powered assistant "shooting on all four" to help convict the accused, unfrocked cop, a jury promptly refused to convict and said cop in full uniform is long since back on the job and now has with him a fellow policeman likewise accused, but free because the District Attorney admitted he had no hope of conviction.

So passes a sensational case which had all the earmarks of a minstrel show, so even staid Judge Thompson dubbed it.

Who is to blame? We believe the responsibility can be properly laid at the door of the over-zealous reformer who failed to figure that a jury, even when liberally leavened with women jurists, would take the unsupported, shifty testimony of a colored brothel-keeper against a gallant patrolman of the beat who firmly denied the bribery charge. So anxious, however, were reformers to turn the town upside down, and drive vice into the open that the fact of spending a thousand dollars of the people's money was never given a thought. Hereafter, Grand Juries should weigh the outcome as well as the evidence and not be carried off their feet.

Not only were the policemen vindicated, but also Sonoma County's District Attorney, who has frequently been taxed with being "too easy." To controvert this the official took on a "hard boiled" prosecutor who went the limit to get the conviction which failed to materialize and has won for the second defendant his re-instatement on the force.

One thousand dollars spent on Sonoma County's hospital or roads would be money well spent. One thousand dollars spent trying to "get" policemen on colored testimony leaves a dark brown taste in the mouth of every taxpayer. Let's get the goods on culprits before we stage other such shows.

THAT PIECE OF ROAD TO PETALUMA

That road to Petaluma should be improved and Sonoma Valley welcomes all the co-operation and backing we can get from our live wire Petaluma neighbors. When we reflect that it was over the brown Petaluma hills that the Mission fathers first wended their way to Sonoma Valley and that we continue to travel the path they trod and are still traveling our primitive road, it is high time that the progressive citizens of Sonoma and Petaluma joined hands for something better.

The Petaluma road was designated as a county highway in the bond issue of some years ago by which Sonoma County undertook to give the people modern thoroughfares. The history of the waste of public funds, the County Engineer's extravagance and all it cost us is fresh in the minds of Sonoma Valley people, who certainly were given the short end of that deal from start to finish. With the district relieved of the upkeep of the Schellville-Santa Rosa road and the crying need of the improvement of the Petaluma "highway" it looks as though Supervisor Lowell, backed by a strong delegation of Sonoma Valley and Petaluma citizens should be able to prevail upon the Board of Supervisors as a whole to devise ways and means for giving us the Class B highway which the people of Sonoma County have endorsed and authorized.

Sonoma Valley can draw a big volume of travel and a lot of business from Petaluma, a rich, thickly populated section only 15 miles away. Why look further, then, for better business than to the immediate improvement of a part of these 15 miles, whose deplorable condition is keeping Sonoma Valley out of what is naturally h ers and is depriving Petaluma of the opportunity to fraternize with us. The Chinese wall must fall here as it has elsewhere. The combined energies of neighbors battering for access can and must put across the road so much to be desired, over the Petaluma hills.

All together, now. Let's concentrate our forces on this improvement.

LA FOLLETTE FOOLISHNESS

California bids fair to get more official recognition at Washington than ever before and only a few nights ago we were told, over the radio, by Secretary of the Navy Wilbur that the Navy had spent $70,000,000 on the Pacific Coast last year, the major part of which went to California; that more government money was to be spent here next year, much more, because the Pacific fleet is to make the Pacific its permanent home, which economically means much to this part of the United States.

President Coolidge's appointee, Secretary of the Navy Wilbur, is a powerful and loyal friend of California and is just one of many who are now centering the interest of the President on this favored and strategic locality. Let us not now, then, commit a stupid blunder and permit the California vote to go to the third party candidate, Mr. LaFollette, thereby "queering" our Golden State and giving it the unenviable reputation of being the rendezvous of radicals and malcontents. Such a course could have but two outcomes, one of which would be the forfeiting of California's present favored place in official favor.

At times in the past our position has been jeopardized through Hiram Johnson's tactics and California's endorsement of him, but Johnson-ism is no longer a fad or even a fallacy with us, and after all, California was forgiven for its interest in a "favored son." To favor LaFollette, however, is foolishness, for his choice not only would proclaim our preponderancy of radicalism, but could also plunge the country into an intolerable deadlock as the following article explains:

"The possibility of having the selection of a President go to the House of Representatives recalls the turmoil and dangers of the Hayes-Tilden contest, which threatened armed conflict, shook the government to its foundations, and created intense bitterness which continued for a generation.

"It was wheen feeling was at the breaking point that President Grant, in his preparations to quell an uprising, made his famous declaration that he was 'determined to have peace even if he had to fight for it.'

"The quarrel lasted many months and but for some cool heads at Washington the consequences would have been grave. The unrest reached to all parts of the country, producing business stagnation and setting back for a period the slow emergence of the nation from the conditions following the Civil War.

"The possibilities that the voters of the United States may again fail to give a candidate a majority of the electoral vote, because of the 'three-cornered' contest, are being more and more recognized as the campaign proceeds. Chester H. Rowell first called attention in California to this prospect. And as he explained, of that result California may easily be, as it was in 1916, the decisive State. Oregon was the decisive State in 1876.

"The most that the LaFollette candidacy can achieve is to win a sufficient number of Middle Western and Western States to prevent a majority for Coolidge in the electoral college. To make matters worse, as Rowell pointed out, the House o Representatives would be deadlocked, in which event the election would go to the Senate, which would choose between the two highest candidates for Vice President. The LaFollette or insurgent Senators would likely combine with the Democrats to make Charles W. Bryan President. If Brother Charles should appoint as his Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan the latter would stand next in line for the Presidency, should a vacancy occur.

"The Coolidge campaign resolves itself, therefore, largely into a drive to prevent the election of the President being thrown into Congress. The battle ground lies west of the Mississippi and extends to the Pacific Coast. More and more California takes on an important pivotal position in the reckoning of things, for its thirteen electoral votes near turn the situation one way or the other.

"In the mathematics of it, a comparatively small LaFollette minority in the electoral college may create an unparalleled situation in which Coolidge will be denied the majority the constitution requires.

"The only constructive prospect lies in the election of President Coolidge,' said Rowell in his analysis. 'The only other possible result would be destructive and reactionary in effect regardless of the motives of the voters who might, perhaps unwittingly, have brought this about. Just now the world is in a cyclone. Our most urgent present task is to keep our government operating in safety. A vote for any other candidate than Calvin Coolidge is a vote to prevent an election, and to present an impossible dilemma, both of constitutional procedure and of candidates.'"

RETIRED NAVY MAN IS STILL ON DECK

WHY BOND THE CITY OF SONOMA?

The question and talk of our city now and for some time past, is bond, bond. Is there never going to be an end to this taxation and bonding business?

We are driving away good citizens and people who would like to come here, because of the fact that we are taxed to death, and when they come here with the view of settling and find how the situation is, they simply leave; no encouragement whatever for them to locate.

The problem at issue now is city sewer. If handled right it can be fixed very easy and at small cost. Our city a few years ago put in a sewer system and septic tank and it worked fine because we then had a Board of Trustees composed of such men as George Breitenbach and Charles Dal Poggetto, who looked after these matters and saw to it that our city sewer farm in every way was kept in working order. They ran our city with much less expense in every way, and peace and harmony prevailed. But now, with city licenses and business tax raised to four times the original amount and the city funds always short, matters have reached a stage almost unbearable, and now they would saddle a $30,000 bond on the taxpayers of our city.

Gentlemen, as a taxpayer, I say there is some other way out of this problem of sewage, so get busy and get some level-headed help and work it out. It can be done.

As taxpayers and citizens of the City of Sonoma, we are now paying off the following bonds:

City hall bonds, city sewer bonds, school bonds and street bonds.

—Quite enough.

A TAXPAYER.

PAGEANT PARTICIPANTS ENTERTAINED MONDAY

Complimentary to the Redwood Pageant participants the Sonoma Valley Womans Club gave a party at the clubhouse Monday evening. The club realizing that so many of the players were not club members and had given their time and talent because of community interest, it was thought only proper to fete the cast. About sixty or seventy gathered for the big party. All guests enjoyed the evening's festivities. A High School students jazz orchestra furnished music for dancing, there were games and contests, program numbers and feasting. Mrs. Burlingame thanked those present for their part in the play of the Redwoods and the cooperation given her and her associates. The committee, Mrs. Burlingame, Mrs. Wicker, and Mrs. Hotz acted as hostesses at the party.

N. D. G. W. PLAN DANCE NOVEMBER 1st

Sonoma Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, will give its annual Hallowe'en dance this year on Saturday night, November 1st, at Union Hall. Many features are being planned to make this the finest affair of the social year.

On September 22nd, the local Parlor will give a shower to Mrs. H. Schmidt, nee Dorellis Breitenbach, and the popular young matron will be the recipient of the many nice gifts which Native Daughters always give their members who become brides.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fine are retiring from the restaurant business and will devote their time to the prize winning pedigreed Persian cats, of which they have a splendid collection. They expect to remain in the Yenni block, but are disposing of their restaurant equipment.

George Toth, the waffle king of Fetters, is adding a groceteria and delicatessen department, with home made pies, and will sell at Sonoma prices to the housewives of the Springs section, so he announces.

URGE EL VERANO ROAD BETTERMENT

The people of El Verano, who find their busy summer resort section off the main line of travel since the completion of the state highway, are to the fore with demands that money no longer necessary for the upkeep of the Santa Rosa county road be spent there.

Louis Parente, who has an investment of more than $100,000 in his Tavern property, Captain Tullett who recently bought the El Verano Villa and others feel that a modern lateral from the highway through El Verano is vital to the business people of that section. They point out that a road such as the county built on Riverside Drive some years ago could be laid with slight expense.

Some wonderful tomatoes grown by George Dolcini have been on display in Clewe's window, and win new honors for the clever High School student, besides proving what Sonoma soil, properly farmed, can do.

OUSTED PETALUMA TEACHER GIVEN HEARING

The hearing of David L. Oberg, former principal of the Petaluma Junior High School, on charges preferred against him and filed with the school directors by Superintendent of Schools B. H. Painter, was in progress before the Board of Education this week at the city council chambers. Many interested people crowded the chambers during the hearing.

The Superior Court at Santa Rosa recently dismissed a restraining order against the school board, and this action enabled the directors to hear the charges against Oberg, who for some time has been connected with the school department and who has been principal of the Petaluma Junior High School.

Attorneys F. A. Howell and F. A. Meyer are representing the School Board and Mr. Painter, while Attorney W. A. Cowan of Santa Rosa is representing Oberg.

Miss Hinckley, supervisor of music in the Petaluma schools, was the first witness called for the plaintiff in the action and she occupied the stand for more than an hour and a half. She was principally questioned for the plaintiff by Attorney Meyer and she testified that on or about September 17th of last year Mr. Oberg, after being interviewed by her, regarding some changes in the musical program at the school, had called her an anarchist and a bolshevist. Miss Hinckley testified that Oberg was angry when making the statements.

Miss Hinckley further testified that in a conversation with Oberg regarding an operetta at the school Oberg stated that he did not want an operetta to interfere with school work and said that the high school was a jazz institution and no solid work was being accomplished there.

Attorney Cowan then took the witness for cross examination and dwelt for some time on the matter of the music program as outlined for the Junior High School and regarding the changes Miss Hinckley desired. Miss Hinckley testified that she did not go to the principal for the music program but usually secured it from the teeacher of the class in which she was teaching. Miss Hinckley further testified that when the operetta was given for the schools last year, the time for practice was during music class hours and on a number of evenings.—Petaluma Argus.

NIECE OF GENERAL VISITS PETALUMA ADOBE

Admission Day was a far more important day for the old Vallejo adobe east of Petaluma than was planned for in addition to the flag raising of the Native Sons in the morning, later in the day the historic old pile was visited by a niece of the late General Vallejo, who built the historic structure. The visitor had never seen the old building and was inspired to make the trip and see it, owing to the fact that she had recently read in the Sunday travelogue in a San Francisco paper, of the old building which was given as an interesting destination for Sunday auto travelers. She had heard of the old building before but not until Admission Day had she set foot in the old pile and when she introduced herself to A. J. Richardson, the keeper, he regretted that he could not keep her there until prominent Petalumans could be summoned out to meet her.

The noted visitor was Mrs. N. Y. Carrillo Harris of San Luis Obispo and she accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Rebecca Harris Sharon, and the latter's husband, making the trip in their beautiful car and it was a distinguished and prosperous party of visitors who made themselves known. They were on their way to Sonoma to visit Mrs. Emparan.—The Petaluma Argus.

While Rev. Isaac Cookman was on a visit to his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Peck and Mr. and Mrs. Rankin in Vallejo this week, his car, which had been parked near the Peck residence, was tampred with, the brakes released and it ran down one of Vallejo's famous hills, struck a telephone pole and was completely demolished.

Mr. Cookman returned to find his car gone from its parking place and first believed he had violated a parking ordinance and that the machine had been taken by a traffic officer. A crowd gathered around a wreck at the foot of the hill told the real story.

The car was uninsured and Mr. Cookman feels its loss heavily.

Adjusted Compensation For Our Veterans Is Explained

(b) Any individual holding a permanent or provisional commission or permanent or acting warrant in any branch of the military or naval forces or (while holding such commission or warrant) serving under a temporary commission in a higher grade in each case for the period of service under such commission or warrant or in such higher grade after the accrual of the rigght to pay thereunder. This subdivision shall not apply to any non-commissioned officer.

(c) Any civilian officer or employee of any branch of the military or naval forces, contract surgeon, cadet of the United States Military Academy, midshipman, cadet or cadet engineer of the Coast Guard, member of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, member of the Students' Army Training Corps (except an enlisted man detailed thereto, Philippine Scout, member of the Philippine Guard, member of the Philippine Constabulary, member of the National Guard of Hawaii, member of the insular forces of the Navy, member of the Samoan native guard and band of the Navy, or Indian Scout—in each case for the period of service as such.

(e) Any commissioned or warrant officer performing home service not with troops and receiving commutation of quarters or of subsistence for the period of such service.

(f) Any member of the Public Health Service, for any period during which he was not detailed for duty with the Army or the Navy.

(g) Any individual granted a farm or industrial furlough, for the period of such furlough.

(h) Any individual detailed for work on roads or other construction or repair work, for the period during which his pay was equalized to conform to the compensation paid to civilian employees in the same or like employment, pursuant to the provisions of Section 9 of the Act entitled "An Act making appropriations for the service of the Post Office Department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1920, and for other purposes," approved February 28, 1919.

(i) And individual who was discharged or otherwise released from the draft, for the period of service terminating with such discharge or release.

The above does not mean that any veteran who served in these capacities is not entitled to any adjusted compensation, but it simply means that for the period of such service no credit will be allowed. For example, an enlisted man who was given an industrial furlough may be entitled to adjusted service credit for his other service although not for the period of the furlough.

One full payment will be made in cash to veterans or dependents where the adjusted service credit amounts to $50 or less. No cash will be paid before March 1, 1925.

An adjusted service certificate will be issued to veterans whose adjusted service credit is more than $50. Certificates will be dated January 1, 1925, when application is filed before that date, but when application is filed thereafter, the date of the certificate will be the first day of the month in which application is filed.

At the end of 20 years from the date of the certificate, the face value, less any indebtedness thereon due the United States will be paid to the veteran in cash.

If the veteran should die before the expiration of 20 years from the date of the certificate, the amount due thereunder will be paid to the beneficiary named by him, in cash. If such beneficiary dies before the veteran and no new beneficiary is named, or if the beneficiary in the first instance has not been named, the amount due under the certificate will be paid to the estate of the veteran.

Where the veteran is entitled to a service credit of more than $50 and dies without filing an application, the amount of the adjusted service credit will be paid to the dependent who has made valid application and is entitled to the adjusted compensation, in cash in ten equal quarterly installments. No cash payments will be made before March 1, 1925.

Loan Privilege

Any national bank or bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of any state or territory, possession, or the District of Columbia, is authorized, after the expiration of two years after the date of the certificate, to loan to a veteran on his promissory note, secured by the certificate, an amount not in excess of the loan basis of such certificate. The loan basis increases yearly as shown by the table of values printed on the certificate itself.

Penalties

The law provides punishment by fine of not more than $500, or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, for any person who charges or collects, or attempts to charge or collect, either directly or indirectly, any fee or other compensation for helping a veteran or his dependents in obtaining the benefits, privileges or loans to which he may be entitled under the law. The law further provides that whoever knowingly makes any false or fraudulent statement of a material fact in any application, certificate or document, made under the provisions of the Act, or of any regulation made under the Act, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $1000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

Obtain an application blank, read the instructions carefully, fill it out completely, and send it in.

Do not mail your application to the United States Veterans' Bureau; mail it to the proper one of the three addresses set out in a foregoing paragraph of this article.

No sum payable under this Act to a veteran or his dependents, or to his estate, or to any beneficiary and no adjusted service certificate shall be subject to attachment, levy, or seizure under any legal or equitable process or to national or state taxation

No certificate issued or right conferred under the Act can be sold, negotiated or assigned, or serve as security for any loan except as provided in the Act.

Keep the United States Veterans' Bureau informed of your correct address so that your check or certificate will be sure to reach you.

Adjusted service compensation has nothing to do with government life insurance or compensation for disability, or vocational training, and the same veteran may receive all or any of them.

EL VERANO NEWS

"Fighting Bob" LaFollette are the principals is beginning to get stormy, in political circles. This promises to be the campaign of the century, and as both dyed-in-the-wool Republican and Democratic voters are turning toward the LaFollette and Wheeler ticket. it seems the third party has a chance to land the plum. To the writer it looks as though the fight would center about Coolidge and Senator LaFollette. A straw vote in several states by workers in banks, offices, stores, and other similar lines of work, not including the labor vote, indicates that LaFollette is a popular candidate. The Democrats lost their chance when they refused to nominate the popular aspirant, Governor Al Smith, of New York State, as their standard bearer in the coming presidential election.

Mrs. N. Conema and daughter are visiting at the Mullen home from San Francisco.

Died, in Santa Rosa on September 7th, Esther Pearce, dearly beloved mother of Golias Cooper. A native of Egypt, aged 63 years. Madame Pearce was our late fortune teller and resided in El Verano for about a year previous to her leaving for Healdsburg several weeks ago. Her son was married while in camp on the banks of Sonoma Creek, to a San Francisco girl. Mrs. Pearce was well known in Sonoma county as a fortune teller and friends here will regret her death.

State authorities favor the construction of an entrance from the Schellville-Santa Rosa highway to the State Home at Eldridge, a project endorsed by the Board of Managers of the institution at a recent meeting. The road will be less than a mile in length. The State Highway Commission will be asked to build the road.

Miss Nancy Griffith has gone to San Francisco where she has accepted a position.

SAFETY VALVER TELLS HOW TO GET GOOD ROADS

(From Petaluma Argus)

That was the all important subject at the good roads meeting held in the council chambers of the city hall in Sonoma Monday night. It was a most enthusiastic meeting and everyone present was well acquainted with the objects to be attained from some concerted action along these lines. It is a well known fact that our roads in this end of the county are absolutely the worst in the state and it is high time that we were up in arms and demand our rights. On the other hand, we have no one to blame but ourselves since we have really not been together and made our wants known and, of course, it is very hard for our supervisors and state officials to know what we want if they are not told.

There is a lot of money spent for roads and the ones who are not afraid to ask are the ones who get the lion's share. It is, therefore, up to us to get together and demand our rights and this is the best time in the world to show that we really care and that we are really interested enough in good roads to attend this special meeting in Sonoma next Monday evening in a body. Let us show Sonoma that we are interested in them just as much as some other cities not far away. The delegation from Petaluma which visited Sonoma last Monday night was greeted with open arms; they were glad, indeed, to see us and thought on account of our strength we would be able to help them in this matter materially and it is up to every business man and property owner in this section to lend his aid and turn out in such numbers at this next meeting that Sonoma will not need to guess whether or not we are with them.

Mr. Martinelli was in Sonoma on Monday and predicted a Coolidge victry in Caolifornia while discussing politics here.

THE BOOTLEGGERS DON'T MIND COST

Prohibition enforcement next year will cost the American people more than $20,000,000, about double the cost of previous years, if estimates submitted to the budget bureau are approved. The prohibition bureau is seeking about $12,000,000, while the coast guard has asked approximately $8,000,000. Besides there is the expense of the Department of Justice in prosecuting dry cases.

VISIT SCENES OF YOUTH

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Manuel of San Francisco on their annual outing and vacation, decided this year to visit Sonoma Valley, where both were raised, and look upon familiar places of their youth. They arrived last Saturday and were entertained at the home of Mrs. Manuel's sister, Mrs. D. Hatton.

While in Sonoma Valley they hiked to the former Baettge ranch in the hills north of town where Mrs. Manuel and Mrs. Hatton were both raised. Their father, the late Captain Baettge, was a retired sea captain and there raised his family.

Mr. Manuel's father, the late H. C. Manuel, was an ex-city trustee of Sonoma and paving block quarry owner. Harvey Manuel bears a striking resemblance to his father. The visitors were here over the holiday.

Mrs. M. Papina has purchased a nice Oldsmobile enclosed car for her family and it is being greatly enjoyed.

After a six weeks' illness Mrs. Susan Whiting is now able to sit up daily and news from her homee in San Francisco is quite encouraging. Before the fire Mrs. Whiting owned one of the prettiest homes in Woodleaf Park in Boyes Springs. She is the widow of a former prominent N. W. P. railroad official, the late H. C. Whiting.

MARKETS

NEWS, COMMENT AND FIGURES

Chicago, Sept. 6.

Considering the news and the amount of export business passing, the grain markets acted in a most unsatisfactory manner for the bulls. Wheat at the close of Saturday was 1⅛c to 2c lower than the finish the previous week, while corn was off ½c to ⅝c. Oats were unchanged to ½c lower, while rye showed independent strength as export sales exceeded the amount of new grain hedged, and net gains were 1⅝c to 4½c, with September leading.

During the past week 12,000,000 to 14,000,000 bushels wheat, 4,000,000 bushels rye, 2,000,000 bushels barley and 2,000,000 to 3,000,000 bushels oats were sold abroad, a total of around 22,000,000 bushels. Large as this total it was only about 50 per cent of the amount of grain received at primary markets—43,666,000 bushels—the largest on record by nearly 6,000,000 bushels, the nearest approach being 38,087,000 bushels for the week ending August 5, 1921.

Continued unfavorable reports on the Canadian oats crop with further export business had some effect on the oats market, increasing support on the breaks and the undertone throughout the day was generally firm.

San Francisco, Sept. 6.

HOGS: Compared week ago: Active, bulk medium 130-150-pound Californias, $11; few 200-250-pounds, $10.50; heavy sows, $8; numerous loads choice easterns, $11.25@11.35.

CATTLE: Compared week ago: Good steers, steady; six loads Nevadas, $8; demand narrow; lower grades plentiful, steady; several loads, $7.35@7.50; undertone strong on best available grades; good cows steady, few loads around $4.75@5.25; two loads baby beef heifers estimated $6; undergrade cows weak, little interest; numerous loads from packers' ranches.

CALVES: Weekly receipts, 775. Compared week ago: Market firm to 50c higher; good to choice under 200-pound calves, scarce; quotable up to $8.25; several loads good 225-pound calves, $7.75; numerous loads 350-pound calves commission selling steady to 50c higher.

SHEEP: Compared week ago: Lambs firm to 50c higher; good to choice 68-72-pound lambs, scarce; talking $11.50@11.75; bulk arrivals heavy; 78-92-pound island lambs, $10@10.50; culls, $8, mostly good quality with 10 per cent cutback; ewes, steady; few loads, $4@4.50; few good 87-pound yearlings, $7.50.

MILL FEEDS: The tonnage of hay received during the past week was slightly lower than that of the preceding week. Eight hundred and fifty-four tons arrived as compared with 982 for the previous week.

The receipts continue to decrease in quantity and the market is strongly in the seller's favor. Export trade has improved slightly, though Hawaii is still embargoed against California products. Future shipments of grain and millfeeds show slightly lower quotations, while spot prices are unchanged. Seed grain inquiries are beginning to arrive here and prospects are that heavy buying will be done after the first rains.

Cantaloupes of good quality were in active demand, white meats sold from $2.25 to $2.50 per standard crate, while pink meats were bringing as high as $3 per standard crate. Jonathan apples of fair quality were offered at $2 to $2.50 per lug. Zinfandel grapes were selling locally at $75 to $90 per ton, while muscats, golden Shastas and Feher Szagos varieties brought $25 to $35 per ton.

The tomatoe market failed to recover any strength and large lugs of overripe stock sold as low as 35c each. Best spinach was quoted at 6c per pound. There was a fairly good demand for bunched vegetables.

SAN FRANCISCO MEN NAMED IN WAR TIME CONSPIRACY

San Francisco.—Fraud, conspiracy and collusion in obtaining control of a big mercantile and sugar establishment of Hawaii, are alleged in an action filed in the superior court here. The amount at issue in the controversy, in which names of many leading financiers and business organizations of San Francisco figure prominently, is estimated at $10,000,000. The administration of A. Mitchell Palmer, alien property custodian in the Wilson administration, is touched upon.

The plaintiffs to the controversy number eighteen, while the defendants are more than forty of the leading business men and corporations of San Francisco and Honolulu.

Governor's Day at Fair

Sacramento.—A public reception to Governor Friend W. Richardson, the annual stock parade and a special Rotary club celebration combined to make governor's day, September 4, the banner event of the state fair. Fully 50,000 visitors passed through the turnstile. The million dollar stock parade, one of the biggest drawing cards of the exposition, started promptly at 10 o'lock, and more than 3,000 of the west's finest animals passed in review before a crowded grand stand.

GLEN ELLEN ACCIDENT VICTIM STILL HELPLESS

Mrs. Mary Laughnane, wife of J. H. Laughnane of Glen Ellen, who was the victim of a serious auto accident when a machine driven by an alleged intoxicated driver ran into the Laughnane car on the Black Point cut-off, is unable to move off her back and may be brought into court from the hospital to testify against Carl Brix and Eugene Matthewson, of Fresno, charged with operating the car which caused the accident.
